What is the Venus Sequence?

The part of you that experiences its shadow side is calling out for a helping hand from you. It doesn’t want to be gotten rid of but to be evolved into its higher state by your attention. When your shadow comes up through an irrational reaction to a simple word or action, or perhaps it comes up as an aspect of ‘not good enough’, or any other expression of your shadow side, you have, in that moment, a choice to keep fortifying the wall of protection over your heart, or using your particular key to open the door of the heart to live with authenticity and realness. The Venus Sequence reveals both the lock and the key that will open your pure Divine Loving Heart and dispel the myth of the victim in our human drama. Aren’t you ready for that?

The Venus Sequence is a very young transmission moving across our planet. Because it lives in us, it activates our DNA inside our bodies to those who recognize its wonder. On June 7, 2004, during a rare transit of the planet Venus across the face of the sun, a profound knowledge was released to the collective unconscious. The name given to this knowledge is the Venus Sequence. Richard Rudd received this download and developed the system of knowledge we are currently using.

The knowledge that comprises the Venus Sequence discloses the precise matrix of what was called the sacred wound as it entered the world, passed along the ancestral lines of all human beings and developed a wide band of the human story. It’s the story of separation from our original heritage of a great Being of Love. As the wound passes from generation to generation, it divides into different combinations of archetypal genetic patterns, which are then reflected in our relationships. Fear isn’t personal or real but a reflection of the story of separation we had been playing out. Evolution is now calling for a different story. All is moving toward remembering our true nature as these great Beings of Love. The sacred wound has a purpose, and that purpose, in one way or another, is to take humans back to the realization of their own Divinity. The way out is through, and the Venus Sequence shows you the way without the drama. How refreshing!

Our wealth, community and our health are actually deeply linked to ancestral themes that most of us are totally unaware of. Do you want to know what will open up these areas? Your sequence will show you. As we release these ancient patterns, we begin to see that every aspect of our lives – our bodily aches and illnesses, our emotional and relationship issues, and even our bank balance, are all deeply connected to the “not enough, aren’t enough” story.
Richard Rudd wants to make clear to all who come to this knowledge is that it isn’t knowledge, and it isn’t another system. It is a living Dharma Transmission. It came to him as a transmission, and it passes into others as a transmission, no matter what any of our minds think. Because the Venus Sequence is a living presence, it is best grasped intuitively. The Venus Sequence is the very Essence of a deeply feminine transmission. It seeks to unity. It seeks the return of Love. It seeks to restore community, communion and consciousness to our human family. The best way to awaken this Great Divine Being of your true nature is to learn your sequence and be conscious the moment your shadow arises for transformation. Be awake and simply surrender to your key. It is restoring the balance of masculine and feminine, and therefore, chooses to come to a male form through which to propagate itself frequency.

Despite its profound and far-reaching ability to transform from within, the Venus Sequence is both practical and accessible. There’s nothing to do. It isn’t a change process; it is transmitting a frequency that has great wisdom to dismantle the fear ego just by hearing the words of your sequence. It always begins with the individual, and this is where coming together in sessions, groups, and seminars allows one to experience the depth of the transmission.

Here’s an example of how I use my own Venus Sequence in my daily life. My trigger, the doorway to dismantle the human conditioned patterns of separation is a line, or a frequency 64/6. The 64 is the Gene Key being worked with and the 6 is how it gets worked with. Don’t let the numbers throw you. The number is like the radio frequency broadcasting a certain type of music. The music has two extremes of music it plays but all within the same genre. With my frequency 6 in this key, I’m apt to say, “Been there, done that” and disengage when what I need to do with this particular line is engage by being fully present. These represent the two ends of the frequency band width – disengage and be fully present and engaged. There are ways I disengage with this particular line 6 and my key to opening my heart is to be present and authentic in the moment. As I have learned to do that by simply taking a breath and centering back into my body I show up very authentically and I even enjoy the experience. The shadow side drops away bit by bit. The more I am authentic and don’t run from the situation or dismiss the supposed inauthenticity of the other person, we both have a real communion of the heart. Each line has it’s code to unlock the heart. What you really learn from the sequence is the original story line you play out. It’s not a personality defect; you chose to embody that radio frequency in order to bring it to the highest bandwidth. All the lines have only one purpose, to reveal your original conditioned story and to set it down in favor of a more real way of relating with your fellow humans. Nowhere does this opportunity come up than in our intimate relationships. The Divine Feminine, as an organizing principle, will reveal your depth and high heart to you as you receive the frequency then let it work within you. She is what is waking us up from our trance of “not enough/not good enough”. I have loved my Venus Sequence reading and can tell which line is playing through me at any given moment. With a simple turn of awareness and a re-centering to North on my heart compass, I enjoy so much more freedom and joy in all my interactions. I know you will enjoy your reading.
